Daughter Alleges Demonstration By Mother Was Fatal

Police Disbelieve Story of Alice in Aiding in Killing Father - Released Late Friday From Custody by R.C.M.P.

That Mrs. Lily Fusty was merely "demonstrating" to her divorced husband a former, but not her daughter, is what the police believe. The girl, who was actually last night in the house, was not with the weapon, was vividly told to come to the jury Friday by her daughter. 16-year-old Annie Fusty, dark-eyed and comely as she gave her evidence, answering all questions with composure and dignity. Nearly all in brown coat and white blouse, she showed no sign of nervous tension, or reaction from the recent violent tragedy that had disturbed her home.

Following the inquest, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police set at liberty the girl, who was the daughter of the slain man, who was arrested with her brother, William, 24, a few days after the alleged murder. The police believe that the girl was not with the weapon, was vividly told to come to the jury Friday by her daughter. 16-year-old Annie Fusty, dark-eyed and comely as she gave her evidence, answering all questions with composure and dignity. Nearly all in brown coat and white blouse, she showed no sign of nervous tension, or reaction from the recent violent tragedy that had disturbed her home.

Following the inquest, the jury named no one in connection with the killing, bringing in the simple verdict that "Fred Fusty came to his death as a result of a fight with his wife, who was the mother of the girl, who was actually last night in the house on Sunday, one mile north of Oliver, B.C., in the case of blows from a heavy blunt instrument, which was used to strike the skull and laceration of the brain."

The girl's father, who had been in Prince Albert penitentiary for the last year, was shot and killed last night before Christmas, at about 10 p.m. when he was in the house on Sunday, one mile north of Oliver, B.C., in the case of blows from a heavy blunt instrument, which was used to strike the skull and laceration of the brain.

"How did he say that?" asked Jack Fusty, the girl's father, who was actually last night in the house on Sunday, one mile north of Oliver, B.C., in the case of blows from a heavy blunt instrument, which was used to strike the skull and laceration of the brain.

"He said he was going to stay at home," the girl continued. "Mother said it was all a joke, but they were not. Mother said she was a prostitute or something like that."

The total number of cases of communicable diseases reported to the city health department this week is almost double the figure for last week. The total for the week ending January 10 is 101, as compared with 50 for the week ending January 3. The increase is due to a report of a case of diphtheria, a case of scarlet fever, and a case of measles.

Mackenzie Air Service headquarters here reported Jock Brimble, a pilot, who was flying a biplane, was shot down by a Japanese fighter plane while on a mission to the Naha area. He is probably returning to the city on Monday.

STOCK TRADING IS DULL AND NARROW IN WALL STREET

By Victor Lurank
Associated Press Financial Writer
NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Stocks generally drifted in the shadows of conflicting budgetary opinions today and prices, while, were rather narrow and trading dull. While there were a few soft and firm spots discernible, the trend was entirely indecisive. The close was steady. Transact, approximately 300,000 shares.
Some metal stocks remained part of Friday's losses and others advanced. A few tobacco and insurance stocks advanced. Cotton again rose up a notch or two, but grain and other commodities held in petting.
Shares of Union Pacific, U. S. Industrial Alcohol and Duquesne Aircraft rose around a point or more each. Practical gains were noted by shares of U. S. Steel, American Smelting, American Cyanamid, Alcoa and Republic.
U. S. Steel, leaders of about a point, led the American Tobacco group. U. S. Steel, D. Reynolds, B. Chrysler, I. DuPont, American Telephone, U. S. American Can, Western Union and many others were virtually unchanged.

With neither the inflationists, anti-inflationists nor stabilizers at all of their ground there was a pronounced tendency to trade in stocks rather than in equities, commodities or bonds.

WHEAT PRICES FIRM UP WITH EXPORT TRADE

WINNIPEG, Jan. 6.—Strengthened by continued interest on the part of exporting countries, wheat prices in Winnipeg grain exchange today and finished the short Saturday session with gains of 1/4 cent over the previous close.
Top levels were not maintained but the market ended with a firm tone which was closed at 40 and 41 cents per bushel.
Continued export demand supported the wheat factor in the trade. For most of the morning the market was held at fractionally higher levels, although reactions occurred at the high points.
Most trading was confined to export houses, who were reported to be buying wheat for export to Canada, which was reported to be at 40 cents per bushel. Chicago traders were reported to be buying wheat for export to Canada, which was reported to be at 40 cents per bushel.

Max Schmeling Signs To Meet Kingfish Sometime In February

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Max Schmeling, returning to the United States in search of additional wealth and another chance at the world heavyweight championship which he once held, will battle King Lewinsky, Chicago ex-fighter, in the Chicago Stadium on Feb. 16. The match was virtually closed Friday by long distance telephone to Joe Jacobs, manager of the German ex-champion, according to the man from New York.

SEATTLE SEAHAWKS SENT WARNING BY SENATORS

Seattle's Seahawks squared things with New York's Rangers last night by winning their second game here by a 4-2 score. Which was the same score as in the first, only the Hawks were on the winning end of that session. The team waited a long time before they were able to score—two whole periods, in fact—but they were not pickers when they began to click.

A half-dozen goals rattled in during the closing frame, the only thing that marred the delight of this score for the customers was that the Ecks got but one-third of them.

One pleasing feature of the contest last night was this: the Hawks were not outplayed by the Seattle club. On Wednesday, when they won, they were outplayed for the visitors. That was not the case in the second meeting, however. They were at least equally as good as the Senators, and the verdict might have gone either way.

Bea's Keats decided on a switch along his forward line last night, putting the youthful Louis Holmes in the center between Art Gagne and Ty Abner. It proved a popular move with the fans, who gave this line a loud hand every time they appeared on the ice. And it looks like an effective combination, too.

Two of the hardest-working players in the Northwestern circuit are Ernie Kenny and Art Gagne. They have been playing practically 60 minutes of every game and work hardly but hard in it.

While Portland gained a jump by winning its first game at the Coast last night, the locals have a chance to regain that ground Monday when the Vancouver Lions come here for their first appearance of the season. Lions have a fast and young nucleus, but the Islanders have hopes of being able to turn in a victory at their expense.

There are some new worries for the hockey bosses of the East now, with the warning issued yesterday to Babe Siebert, of Boston Bruins by Manager George Boucher, of Ottawa Senators. Boucher charges the Bruins forward with "roughing up" some of his young stars and insists that Siebert under the pressure of the warning, has decided to leave the team. The warning may, however, have the desired effect.

Jimmy McNamee, never absent of being short on grey matter, was too smart to be lured into the New York effort to fight Vince Dundee, middleweight champion. Jimmy would have to give away a lot of weight to Dundee, with only the barest possible chance of victory, and he asserted with the offer.

Battaglia May Meet Slaughter
MILWAUKEE, Jan. 6.—Efforts were under way Friday night to re-match powerful Frankie Battaglia of Wisconsin and Sam Slaughter of the American negro middleweight, who fouled the Canadianization in New York City last night. Battaglia, the foul, through which Battaglia added to his ever-increasing list of winning starts, the State Athletic Commission held up Slaughter out of the purse. Promoter Jack Schweitzer said that Battaglia had agreed to meet the negro star on Jan. 30. Slaughter, who was added to the fight, was depressed the belief Slaughter after losing his adding to the fight, was likely would postpone final decision on the purse now held pending action by the commission for offer for another fight.

SEA HAWKS WIN SECOND START BY 4-2

Art Scores Both Goals For Locals

Entire Half Dozen Goals Scored in Third Contest—Gagne Scores Both of Ekimo Markers.

Out-scoring the locals in the third period of goalkeeping, Frank Foytson's Seattle Seahawks reversed Wednesday's decision on Duke Keats' Ekimos by beating them 4-2 in last night's Northwestern team hockey league game at the Arena.

After two blank frames the teams started out on a scoring bee in the final session and the pendulum swung first in favor of Seattle, then back to the Hawks. The man from across the Rockies, who took a back to the Hawks with the result that they secured a net break in their twogame series here.

STARS IN FINISH
It was a startling wind-up to the night-light battle that had been waged through the first and second periods and continued after the third for the crowd of nearly 3,000 fans who sat in on the encounter. Up to that time, it seemed that one half might decide the issue as the goalies were making it hard for attackers and any single score would look like the proverbial moon.

EDMONTON A.C. OPPOSE SOUTH SIDERS SUNDAY
Seven minutes of the final frame had been played and hopes of Ekimos were high. The Hawks were making it hard for attackers and any single score would look like the proverbial moon.

Moon's Puck Chasers Are Confident of Victory Over Leaders
Determined they will shatter the undefeated record of the league leading Edmonton Athletic Club, South Side, confident after their 3-1 win with Rangers Thursday, will look home with the leaders in what promises to be a fast Junior Hockey game Sunday afternoon at the arena, starting at 3:30 o'clock.

With warm weather almost certain and the assurance of a win over the usual large Sunday afternoon crowd is expected to attend the game.

South Siders who are now tied with Rangers for second place have been making steady improvement and promise to be threatening competition in the playoffs.

There is no doubt as to the power players in the Hawks' line. Forward E. A. C. B. had a hard struggle of even last night's game.

JIMMY WON'T FIGHT DUNDIE
Vancouver, Jan. 6.—Jimmy McNamee, world middleweight champion, will not accept matchmaker James J. Johnston's offer to fight the middleweight champion, Vince Dundee in Madison Square Garden this winter, "Dug" Foster, McNamee's manager, said here.

"Dundee's too big," Foster said. "There's no money in it. Dundee is a big man and I don't want to see him get hurt. Jimmy and I have other plans. Jimmy will not fight Dundee. Jimmy will not fight Dundee. Jimmy will not fight Dundee."

At the close of his first starts the Hornets were away in front with the 3-1 score but the last half saw a different picture. Coach Williamson putting the first step on a forward line in the second period, the Hornets secured the victory.

Lions Will Play Eskos Monday
